Maternity @ Georgia Tech

Welcoming a child can be a very exciting and stressful time for a family.

One initiative of the Family Friendly Task Force is to ensure there is work-life balance to support growing families.

The Institute is in full support of taking time to bond with your new child.
FMLA is a federal law which allows for up to 12 weeks of job-protected, unpaid leave in a 12-month period for birth or adoption of a child to eligible employees.

To be eligible, you must have at least one year of service and have worked 1,250 hours in the 12 months preceding your leave.

Why is FMLA Important?
• FMLA gives you the right to return to the same or equivalent position you had before going on leave
• Your benefits are maintained
• You are protected against adverse action or discrimination
Compensation While on Leave

Using Short-Term Disability (STD) Benefits

- MetLife is vendor
- 14-day elimination period
  - Use accumulated sick time for missed days of work (two weeks)

- Disability Payments
  - Six weeks for natural delivery (60% of gross salary)
  - Eight weeks for cesarean delivery
  - Cannot use Sick or Vacation time during STD payment periods

- Time off Beyond STD
  - Must use vacation time
  - Sick time cannot be used during this time unless for doctor visits
  - Exhausted vacation balance = Unpaid status within 12-week FMLA period
Using Donated Sick Leave

• To request hours from the Donated Sick Leave pool, you must be a member

• Donated Sick Leave Membership requires a one-time sick leave donation of a minimum of eight (8) hours/maximum of 80 hours during Open Enrollment

• You must retain at least 40 hours accrued sick leave bank as of January 1

• Members may request Donated Shared Leave for any qualifying purpose which meets the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) definition of a serious health condition, including birth of a child
  • First 6 weeks post-partum
  • After exhaustion of accrued time

Compensation While on Leave
Jane is an FMLA eligible employee who had a natural delivery on the 5th of the month.

Jane has 120 hours of sick time and 160 hours of vacation time available as of the start of her leave and plans to utilize her full 12 weeks of FMLA entitlement.

She is also enrolled in short term disability and filed a claim.

Jane’s pay will be as follows:
